IS THERE A UNIVERSAL CODE OF ETHICS? Twenty-one lessons by 14 authors, among whom are those with more than 150 years of experience evangelizing outside the U.S.,- including: gospel and culture, bribery, booze, gambling, abortion, euthanasia, war and government, MDR, etc. Edited by Jim Waldron.

DIVORCE DEBATE: (Olan Hicks vs Jim Waldron). Debate held in 1977, at Karns near Knoxville, TN. - sponsored by the elders of the Karns church. According to Hicks' doctrine a man could be justified even if he had taken wife number 80. Numerous charts on MDR and some special ones from the Greek on the subject.

CLASSICAL PRE-MILLENNIAL DEBATE: (Pickering vs Waldron). Held in Australia in 1974 on the 1000 Year Reign - dealing with errors of the "Left Behind Series," which claims that Jesus, millennialists and fleshly Israel will rule the earth for a literal 1000 years from Jerusalem.

BIBLE WINES: by William Patton. America's number one drug problem is beverage alcohol. This small book is a great tool for stopping the mouths of those who seek to justify beverage alcohol, socially or otherwise.

LETTERS: EXCHANGE ON THE HOLY SPIRIT: A mini-debate through letters between Brother Mac Deaver and Waldron. Deaver affirms that the Holy Spirit lives supernaturally in the saint. Order one, a dozen or more and use them in your class discussions.

THE WORK OF THE HOLY SPIRIT: by Howard Winters. A classic book on how the Holy Spirit lives in the Christian. It is the best book that I know on the subject. It is a powerful tool to put to rest the speculation that the Holy Spirit literally (personally) dwells in the Christian.

PACKET ON MENTAL DIVORCE: This includes an exchange of letters on the subject between brother Terry Hightower and J. Waldron.

THE BOOK OF MORMON, A BOOK OF ERROR AND FRAUD: by Jon Gary Williams. Joseph Smith, who in 1830 founded the "Church of the Latter Day Saints (LDS)," had many wives. Teachers may use this to fortify Christians to the dangers of this man-made organization.

THE OTHER SIDE OF EVOLUTION: by Jon Gary Williams. This little book needs to be studied in every classroom (6th grade to adult) in order to arm the saints to refute the pagan theory called organic evolution, which claims that mankind came from rocks and dirt.

A PRACTICAL GUIDE TO BIBLE STUDY: by Jon Gary Williams. An easy-to-use booklet designed for classroom use (6th—adult), to help the average person study and understand the scriptures. Free to individuals and congregations in any quantity for class, etc., but not to be sold.

THE LION/THE LAMB: A commentary on the book of Revelation by Waldron based on 576 questions over the entire book. Examples: What does Armageddon mean or 666 or the Lamb with seven horns? At present our supply is limited to local reproduction at a cost of $4.00 each. You may order any number at that cost. The book will be (reprinted in India) in the near future.

INTRODUCTION TO FAITH HOME STUDY BOOK: This is a small booklet of thirteen lessons designed for house to house Bible studies which begins with, Why Should We Believe In God? And covers basic teaching to lead one to Christ and His kingdom. Designed to be used as a cottage meeting or prison teaching booklet; it is also an effective class room book for 7th through adults

VITAL FUNDAMENTALS: by Jerry Frazier. A great tool on fundamentals of the faith by a brother who obeyed the gospel in prison. A great tool for classrooms from 6th grade and up, and prison work.

THE SERPENTINE ROAD: by David Hallett. An autobiographical account of the life of a Canadian brother in India from 1963 to 1993. He was a young man of 26, who was abandoned on the field by an older missionary, but conducted a school of preaching for 25 years on a "shoe string" budget.

WHO IS SAVED? (Vol. I, II, III, & IV) by Fred Bogle of Orlando, FL. Basic Bible lessons in booklet form which are great for classroom study or as an aid in teaching non-members.

THE CURRENT ISSUES: by Foy E. Wallace, Jr. and published in 1967. An excellent refutation of the doctrine of forbidding brethren who oppose congregational help for homeless children.

SHOULD WE PRAY TO JESUS? Jason Hilburn gives a critique of brother Wayne Jackson's article in which he advocates praying TO Jesus. The Foreword to Hilburn's book was written by brother Garland Elkins.

DEFENDING DIVINE DOCTRINE PERTAINING TO PRAYER: Also by brother Jason Hilburn. This is an excellent treatise dealing with the erroneous doctrine of praying to Jesus and the Holy Ghost.

100 SONGS OF PRAISE TO GOD: This little book consists of 90 songs that were chosen for their emphasis on singing in four part harmony and ten new songs by Andrew Robinson. There is a section at the back of the book on how to teach/read shape notes.
